

Plurality in Religion and Worldviews: Exploring Lived Traditions

#areiac22

Monday 4 th July 2022
Time	Activity /Speaker	The conference will take place in the Windmill Suite Tea/ Coffee and exhibitions will also be in the Windmill Suite
8.00 – 9.30	Registration	AREIAC Welcome Desk in the Windmill Suite
8.30 – 9.30	Exhibition	Market Place Exhibition of Resources in the Windmill Suite
9.30 – 9.45	Welcome	From the Chairs of AREIAC, Justine Ball and Julia Diamond-Conway
9.45 – 10.45	Key Note: Jagbir Jhutti Johal Reader in Sikh Studies	A Personal Reflection of Lived Religion from a Sikh Woman of Faith and Academia teaching Sikhi.  Jagbir is Reader in Sikh Studies in the Department of Theology and Religion, University of Birmingham.
10.45 – 11.15	Discussion time
11.15 – 11.30	Show and Tell	Exciting new resources and projects: Sparks In The Classroom, Hodder Education
11.30-12.00	Refreshments and Exhibition of Resources
12.00 -12.45	Seminar: Debbie Tibbey	Unity in Diversity
12.45 – 1.15	Show and Tell	Exciting new resources and projects: Story Tent, Claire Ramalli, Books at Press, VAT in RE
1.15 - 2.15	Lunch	Two course lunch in Windmill Suite Market Place Exhibition of Resources
2.15 – 3.00	Updates / Panel with Q and A	Young Ambassadors – led by Sue Holmes REC – Ed Pawson Culham St Gabriel’s Trust – Kathryn Wright
3.00 – 4.00	Seminar: Rocky Grove	Visits and visitors to enhance RE experiences. Co-Chair Coventry SACRE and other members
4.00 – 4.15	Show and Tell	Exciting new resources and projects: EFTRE, RE Today / NATRE, Ruth Everett
4.15 – 4.45	Refreshments and Exhibition of Resources
4.45 – 5.30	Seminar: Liz Wooldridge	Exploring World Views in the Early Years Classroom at Leamington Hastings CofE Academy.
	Free time and Market Place Exhibition of Resources
7.00	7.00pm Drinks Reception – followed by 7.30pm Gala Dinner with wine – After dinner ‘in-house’ entertainment

Tuesday 5 th July 2022
Time	Activity /Speaker	The conference will take place in the Windmill Suite Tea/ Coffee and exhibitions will be in the Windmill Suite
08.15 – 10.00	Exhibition	Market Place Exhibition of Resources in the Windmill Suite
09.00 – 10.00	AGM	Annual General Meeting: Members of AREIAC Market Place Exhibition of Resources: Non members of AREIAC
10.00 – 11.00	Key Note: Martha Shaw, Associate Professor in Education	Understanding worldviews as lived, through our own self-conscious engagement in plurality.  Martha Shaw is Associate Professor in Education at London South Bank University
11.00 – 11.10	Show and Tell	Exciting new resources and projects Holy Land Gifts, RE Matters
11.10-11.35	Refreshments and Exhibition of Resources
11.35 – 11.50	Update: Richard Kueh	Update from Ofsted (via Zoom)
11.50 – 12.20	Seminar: Gill Vaisey	Exploring the lived traditions of individuals, families and communities through the lens of five-year-olds.
12.20 – 12.40	Seminar: Jan McGuire Gill Vaisey	Wilf and his humanist family: The VAT of Belonging and Believing Digital tool – a Culham St Gabriel funded project.
12.45 -1.30	Seminar: Justine Ball	Exploring ways to teach about Jesus in the primary school which accurately reflect Jesus’ historical background and the diversity among Christians, communities and traditions.
1.30 – 2.30	Lunch	Two course lunch in Windmill Suite Exhibition of Resources
2.30 – 3.30	Seminar: Alastair Ross	‘Schools Welcome!’ Promoting quality educational visits to enrich RE
3.30 – 4.00	Open discussion facilitated by the Chair and Vice Chair of AREIAC	Reflections, questions and vision for RE - time to reflect, discuss issues raised and consider the future vision for RE.
4.00	Refreshments and final opportunity to visit the exhibitors’ stands Conference Closes	