

Summer Conference 4th and 5th July, 2022

at the Windmill Village Hotel, Coventry

Plurality in Religion and Worldviews: Exploring Lived Traditions

for advisers, consultants, inspectors, teachers, SACRE members, faith representatives and everyone interested in promoting excellence in RE.

Book now to secure your place, join the conversation and explore current thinking and developments in the religion and worldviews curriculum.

- Engage with key note speakers:
  - Martha Shaw, Associate Professor in Education at London South Bank University
  - Jagbir Jhutti Johal, Senior lecturer in Sikh Studies in the Department of Theology and Religion, University of Birmingham;
- Join seminars with Justine Ball, Alastair Ross, Gill Vaisey and Debbie Tibbey.
- Listen, learn, debate, discuss, and reflect upon experiences of teaching, advising and training in religion and worldviews education.
- Explore less familiar worldviews - Bahá'í Faith, Sikhism, humanism.
- Meet with local faith representatives.
- Enrich RE through quality educational engagement with individuals and communities.
- 'Show and Tell' new resources and projects.
- Exhibitor space for guests and delegates

The Windmill Village Hotel offers superb facilities for both relaxation and work including a health club, sauna, spa, steam room, swimming pool and golf course and the beautiful Windmill Suite for our conference room, overlooking the golf course and lake.

- Short taxi ride from Coventry, Canley or Tile Hill railway stations
- 9.6 miles /15mins from Birmingham airport.
- Easy access for driving and free car parking

Why not treat yourself and enjoy the beautiful city of Coventry over the weekend and join us for pre-conference drinks and supper on Sunday night? It will be so good to meet face to face once again with our colleagues and friends. Don't miss out!

Engage with colleagues for professional dialogue, networking and camaraderie.

After two years of being unable to meet face to face, we are delighted that we will finally be able to hold our conference in Coventry and catch up with colleagues and friends – old and new!
