

Plurality in Religion and Worldviews: Exploring Lived Traditions

#areiac22

Monday 4 th July 2022
Time	Activity /Speaker	The conference will take place in the Windmill Suite Tea/ Coffee and exhibitions will also be in the Windmill Suite
8.30 – 9.30	Registration	AREIAC Welcome Desk in the hotel reception area.
8.30 – 9.30	Exhibition	Market Place Exhibition of Resources in the Windmill Suite
9.30 – 9.45	Welcome	From the Chairs of AREIAC, Justine Ball and Julia Diamond-Conway
9.45 – 10.45	Key Note: Jagbir Jhutti Johal Senior lecturer in Sikh Studies	Jagbir is Senior lecturer in Sikh Studies in the Department of Theology and Religion, University of Birmingham.
10.45 – 11.15	Discussion time
11.15 – 11.30	Exhibitors	Show and Tell: exciting new resources and projects
11.30-12.00	Refreshments and Exhibition of Resources
12.00 -1.00	Seminar: Alastair Ross	'Schools Welcome!' Promoting quality educational visits to enrich RE
1.00 – 1.15	Show and Tell	Exhibitors - exciting new resources and projects
1.15 - 2.15	Lunch	Lunch Market Place Exhibition of Resources
2.15 – 3.00	Seminar: Debbie Tibbey	Unity in Diversity
3.00 – 4.00	Seminar: Rocky Grove Co-Chair Coventry SACRE & other embers	Visits and visitors to enhance RE experiences.
4.00 – 4.15	Show and Tell	Exhibitors, Delegates and Members - exciting new resources and projects
4.15 – 4.45	Refreshments and Exhibition of Resources
4.45 – 5.30	Seminar: Liz Wooldridge Leamington Hastings CofE Academy	Bringing the lived experience of religion and worldviews into the classroom for Early Years pupils.
	Free time and Market Place Exhibition of Resources
7.00	7.00pm Drinks Reception – followed by 7.30pm Gala Dinner with wine – After dinner 'in-house' entertainment

Tuesday 5 th July 2022
Time	Activity /Speaker	The conference will take place in the Windmill Suite Tea/ Coffee and exhibitions will be in the Windmill Suite
08.15 – 10.00	Exhibition	Market Place Exhibition of Resources in the Windmill Suite
09.00 – 10.00	AGM	Annual General Meeting: Members of AREIAC Market Place Exhibition of Resources: Non members of AREIAC
10.00 – 11.00	Key Note: Martha Shaw, Associate Professor in Education	Understanding worldviews as lived, through our own self-conscious engagement in plurality. Martha Shaw is Associate Professor in Education at London South Bank University
11.00 – 11.15	Delegates and Members	Show and Tell: exciting new resources and projects
11.15-11.45	Refreshments and Exhibition of Resources
11.45 – 12.30	Seminar: Gill Vaisey	Exploring the lived traditions of individuals, families and communities through the lens of five-year-olds.
12.30 – 12.45	Seminar Jan McGuire Gill Vaisey	Wilf and his humanist family: The VAT of Belonging and Believing Digital tool – a Culham St Gabriel funded project.
12.45 -1.30	Seminar: Justine Ball	Exploring ways to teach about Jesus in the primary school which accurately reflect Jesus' historical background and the diversity among Christians, communities and traditions.
1.15 – 1.30	Show and Tell	Delegates and Members - exciting new resources and projects
1.30 – 2.30	Lunch	Two course lunch in Restaurant Exhibition of Resources
2.30 – 3.30	Updates / Panel with Q and A	Ofsted – Richard Kueh Culham St Gabriel's Trust – Kathryn Wright Young Ambassadors – led by Sue Holmes REC – Ed Pawson
3.30 – 4.00	Open discussion facilitated by the Chairs and Vice Chair of AREIAC	Reflections, questions and vision for RE - time to reflect, discuss issues raised and consider the future vision for RE.
4.00	Refreshments and final opportunity to visit the exhibitors' stands Conference Closes	